In Loving Memory of

Robert Keith Lilly II

(September 22, 1983 - August 13, 2007)

*God looked around his garden
And He found an empty place.
And then He looked down upon the earth,
And saw your tired face.
He put His arms around you,
And lifted you to rest.
God's garden must be beautiful,
He always takes the best.
He knew that you were suffering,
He knew you were in pain,
He knew that you would never
Get well on earth again.
He saw the road was getting rough,
And the hills were hard to climb,
So He closed your weary eyelids,
And whispered "Peace be thine."
It broke our hearts to lose you .
But you didn't go alone,
For part of us went with you,
The day God called you home.*

This memorial website was created to remember our dearest Robert Keith Lilly II who was born in Hinton, WV on September 22, 1983 and passed away on August 13, 2007. You will live forever in our memories and hearts. Missing you Deeply my Son.

Robert was full of life and was a very caring person. He loved his family dearly. He battled Cystic Fibrosis until he was 23yrs old and God called him home. Robert you are truly missed and loved more than you will ever know. Take your angel wings and soar!! One day we will all be together again rejoicing and thanking god that you can now breathe freely. Keep your love shining down on us. We will NEVER FORGET YOU!!

The image features a textured, light brown background with two roses. One rose is smaller and positioned higher and to the left, while the other is larger and more open, positioned lower and to the right. The word "Gallery" is written in a white, elegant cursive font, centered between the two roses.

Robert's mom, I am so sorry for the loss of your precious son. I know your pain because I lost my precious son Emile. I am sending you peaceful and positive thoughts. Lots of love and hugs!!

Debi Collins

Angel Andrew's Mom

February 9, 2008

Just wanted to tell you once again how very sorry I am for the loss of your son and brother. This first year will be so encompassed with feelings that you never knew that you had. On the other hand, CF is a tough disease and I'm sure that Robert fought a brave fight and it sounds as if he didn't intend on giving up. The disease made that choice for him. I know that you miss him in the most agonizing way, and that's a very real part of grief. This unexplainable absence is one that just has no definition; we just have to live it, accept it and move forward...sometimes we take a few steps back and are forced to start over, but that too, is a part of this heartache.

To Robert's Mom, please email me if you would like to talk. I'll be glad to call you and chat when you feel up to it, or we can most certainly communicate via email. debi.lynn@hotmail.com

Love, hugs and prayers,

Debi Collins

A momma who understands

December 19, 2007

To Bobby's family and friends, may God reach out to each of you and hold you tight as you make this emotionally difficult journey without Bobby. To Bobby's Mom, what special words you shared about your son and his brave fight with CF. It sounds as if you shared a very close relationship with your son and I too, know the wonder of that emotional bonding as well as the void that's created when a son moves on to Heaven. I love my two daughters and I thank God each and every day for them. They too, have been scarred by the loss of their brother.

If you ever care to contact me, my email is debi.lynn@hotmail.com. This site also offers a bereavement forum for people who have lost a child to death. It's been very helpful for me. This memorial site has introduced me to so many fine people. It's been quite therapeutic.

Our son died at 18 years old on July 16th, 2005 five days after being ejected from his car following a horrific accident. He died of blunt force trauma to his brain. When you can, or if you feel ready, please visit his site as well: <http://andrew-collins.last-memories.com>

Merry Christmas and I wish each of you the ability to cope with this special time and the absence of Bobby by taking one day at a time.

Debi Collins

The background is a textured, mottled brownish-gold color. In the upper right quadrant, there are two roses. The one on the right is larger and more open, while the one on the left is smaller and more tightly closed. Both roses are rendered in a light, almost white tone, making them stand out against the darker background.

Memories

all the gray you turned into colors...

I placed it on a plate and laid it on the kitchen counter for you , I went to bed and got up for work the next morning and I noticed the whole plate was missing. when I came to your room before I left like always to tell you I Love you before I went to work each day .. I asked you what happened to all the candy . you grinned real big and said I have it here so brittney won't eat it all , I laughed so hard... I miss making candy for you my son. Happy well lets see Robert i remember when we used to take moms sheets and go out back in the yard and climb the big tree when we lived in Oak hill and we would make forts out of the sheets and swings. It was so much fun. I remember when we took one and was making a hamock swing in the tree and i got stuck and couldnt get down and you stood on the ground and laughed at me. It wasnt funny at the time but looking back on it now it really was funny. I remember we used to go swimming in our pool and play like we were fish and you always seemed to kick the FAR out of me..lol.. I love and miss you so much. I wish i could wrap my arms around you just one more time. Hey Robert just wanted to stop by and tell you i was telling mom and Kristen the other day about the time i called you when you and Kristen first got your own place and had Ozzy (the cat). I had called to see what you were up to and you told me you were trying to get the cat out of the vent in the floor. Your were cleaning out the vents and ozzy decided to investigate to see what was in the ducts...lol..and you kept calling for him saying "here kitty kitty" but he would not come..so you got fed up with trying to get him out you turned the air conditioner on and told me if he wasn't going to come out then you was going to freeze and blow him out...LMBO..i still laugh about that..S..You always said and done the funniest things anyone could imagine..Ozzy has gotten so big. Kristen brought him over and he is beautiful!! Well i wont keep you any longer..I Love you Robert and dont you ever forget that!!

A letter to Robert, When we met I knew all I could ever be to you was just a friend. I hope I accomplished that. I saw you when you were wild and spunky and when you were fighting for each breath. In watching you I learned what courage really meant. I think of you often and pray for you as well. When you stopped by the house the last time and we talked and both cried there was something that I wanted to say to you but felt that I should not say it due to your pride and feeling for no pity. So I will say it now, I wish that I would have been your father. I was always very proud of you and spoke and bragged about you to everyone that I knew. I did not know that day was the last time I would ever see you again. In my heart I always considered you my son. I have copped one of your sayings and it has become a part of me and when I say it I remember you everytime I use it, "I mean what you know". Robert, you have touched me in ways that you were not aware of and because of that I am a better person. Your short life did affect others and you did make an impact on this earth. Well my boy, I will not say goodbye, I will say see you later. And win those drag races with the other angels.

Your Sis April

Robert just stopping by to wish you a Merry Christmas. This christmas is so hard this year. I dont want to celebrate it at all. All the Christmas's we were apart I thought that this year we would be together. But of course i was wrong. I miss you so much. About a week ago i had a dream about you. You came to me and told me to come home with you that it was beautiful there. I wish so much that i could. You kept telling me that you hurt no more and could breathe so freely. One day we will be together again. It has been so hard since you left us. I try so hard to be strong for mom when she is down and missing you. I hold as much as i can in until at night when i go to bed. I wish i could here you one more time say I love you. The memories i have of you for the past 23 yrs will never be forgotten. I love you so much words can not express. You were truely an angel sent from above. Now you have your angel wings and your soaring like an eagle. Keep your love shining down on us. Merry Christmas Little Bro. I love you very much. Dakota and Cheyenne miss and love you too. There is not a day that goes by that we dont look at your picture. Cheyenne will get your pic and carry it around with her through out the house and she just sits and smiles at you. Dakota lets everyone know that sees your picture that you were his uncle bobby. He misses you so much.

Another poem just for you!

We little knew that morning,
God was going to call your name,

In life we loved you dearly,
In death we do the same.

It broke our hearts to lose you,
You did not go alone.
For part of us went with you
The day God called you home

You left us beautiful memories,
Your love is still our guide,
And though we cannot see you,
You are always at our side.

Our family chain is broken,
and nothing seems the same,
But as God calls us one by one,
The chain will link again.

Your Big Sis!

I found this poem and wanted to share. This one fits you Robert. We miss and love you very much. Robert i miss you so much. I keep telling myself it will get easier but it does seem to. I just want you back here with us. This is our first Christmas without you and to tell you the truth I dont want to celebrate it. I need you here with me. I need you here to watch Dakota and Cheyenne grow up. I just need you period. I love you Robert and dont you ever forget that.

Letting Go

God saw you getting tired. When a cure was not to be,
He closed his arms around you and whispered, "Come to Me".
In tears we saw you sinking. We watched you fade away.
Our hearts were almost broken, you fought so hard to stay.
But when we saw you sleeping so peacefully free from pain,
We could not wish you back to suffer so again.
So keep your arms around him Lord, and give him special care.
Make up for all he suffered and all that seemed unfair.

Your Big Sister April

Hi Robert just stopping by to say hello and let you know I was thinking of you. Christmas this year is not going to be the same without you this year. I remember last year when i came to visit you and you had dakota up in the bed with you. I swear he still remembers that. He always says My uncle bobby let me eat chocolate and watch cartoons in bed with him. He thinks the world of you. That was the one christmas we had been together in years. I always lived so far away. We had alot of good christmas's together when we were little though. I miss you so much. One day we will soon be together again. I cant wait for that blessed day. Cheyenne still looks at your pictures i have around the house. She just grabs them and smiles and smiles. I know she misses you too. well bubby i wont keep you any longer. I love you very much.

Today I've had you on my mind since I woke up. I sleep with your blanket every night. I remember that I used to hate that thing because the floral print was so ugly, but you refused to sleep without it. And now I can't sleep without it. It's a curse LOL!!!

I was thinking that this is around the same time you and I were at the house in Mississippi, we were having a good night. Just me and you listening to music, having a drink. Just me and you. That song by Keith Whitley came on and you asked me to dance. I said now, you said yes. We slow danced in our living room. That is one of my best memories of you. We laughed and talked. It felt like time stood still. I wish I were there again with you. I would never let you go again. I love you.

Your Big Sister April

Just stopping by to write a few things I was going through some old photos of you in my wedding album and saw you. I remembered you were the one I asked to sign my wedding Certificate as a witness. You looked at me like I was crazy 😬 and said "Are you sure?". Robert I dont think I would have had it any other way. You mean the world to me. Then I remembered you taped my wedding reception and it was sooo funny. You told mark to put the cake up my nose and sure enough he did. Then you decided to walk around with the camera on and all you see is the ground..You crack me up. 😊 Well I won't keep you any longer. I LOVE YOU BUBBY!!!💋

Love Always,

April ❤️

The first night we met (January 2003) we went for a drive down the gravel roads where I grew up. We talked for hours. That was the day I began to fall in love with you. You asked me to be more than your friend that next month. February 18th 2003. We were sitting at my mom's kitchen table and you looked me in the eyes and said "I know the reputation that I have isn't great, but I can be good to you." I knew that I loved you then. You put a ring on my finger on May 2003. We were engaged, your family was my family. We made a home in October 2004. I started buying more cheese than I ever imagined. We watched Everybody Loves Raymond on Thursday nights. I loved hearing you laugh. You watched me plant flowers in our yard. I watched you build your dream, that Chevy LUV. You had more ambition than 50 men. Our first Christmas together was in 2005, because you were in the hospital the year before. That was a great Christmas. You were my best friend.

I remember being amazed at how well you could work on a vehicle, motor wise and body, at such a young age. I also new if I had a problem with my car I could call on you to tell me what was wrong and how to fix it. The funniest memory I have with you is one of the last conversations we had together. We were talking about cars, and remote control cars and mom asked if you were hungry and you said "Yes I am, and as a matter of fact I want two peanut butter and jelly sandwiches and a glass of milk" Mom brought it back and set it on the table next to you. We continued talking and I told you to eat your sandwiches before the bread went stale. And you said "Well get the hell out of my face" I was kinda shocked at first but the way you said it made me laugh only because you didnt want to eat in front of me. Also the time after we first met we took my "Peace of Crap" honda prelude to the high school parking lot and did donuts in the water puddles..LOL.. 😊 You said "I guess this car is not a piece of crap after all" ..LOL.. Love the memories, they always make me smile when I think about you. Thanks for the experience, honor and privelage of knowing you and being a part of my life. Love and Miss you very much.

ugh; bobby we have had almost 13 years of memories. we have been through so much together. i knew you where so proud of me when i would make good grades in school and do what was right. we used to sit hours at a time talking about everything. i loved the days you'd pick me up early form school and take me ot the park and we'd race little remote control cars in the baseball field. then the cars would get to an area where there was a magnetic field and it's flip the car over. then you meeting kristin and joining her with our family was a blessing. i wish you could have stayed on earth only for untill i was a senior and got married and had kids. thats all i wish for. if i could have you back for a day i'd hold on to you forever. and NEVER let go. thats one thing i regret. i tried saying goodbye but i felt like you couldn't hear me. i knew you could and you couldn't respond but it felt as though you couldn't. we did have amazing times though. like the time it was thanksgiving and i was still asleep and you climbed in my bed and pout your arms around me and said " wake up sweetie time to get up" it was sooo funny. then when i was 4 you told me to rip off your shirt b/c it was old and i tore it to shreads. Bobby i could go on forever. really i could.

just remember i love you!

thats all that matters.

rest in peace big bro.

Your nephew Dakota

I remember when I came to see you and I spent the night. When I got up the next morning Mommy and Daddy were still asleep in Brittney's room and I thought I couldn't find them. You told me to get in the bed with you and you gave me chocolate candy and let me watch cartoons with you. That was so much fun. I Love you uncle Bobby.

 I remember the days we would just sit and talk about everything. I also remember when we were little we were playing on a go cart and you told me to put a box over me and you were going to throw things as i was riding down the road, little did i know you were going to throw a knife and it stuck in my leg. LOL..Still have the scar from that one..L.. I also remember us going sleigh riding on a car hood behind a four wheeler in the middle of winter and you fell over and landed in a pile of cow manure..LOL..You busted your nose and got up and asked "Where did that come from" it was sooo funny. 😊 But the best memory of all that i have would be telling each other "I Love You" those words alone mean the world to me and there is nothing better than hearing it from you..I love you Robert and we'll be together again hopefully soon..

Love Always

Your Big Sister April ❤️

The background of the entire image is a textured, mottled olive-green or sepia tone. In the upper right quadrant, there are two roses. The one on the right is larger and more open, while the one on the left is smaller and more tightly closed. Both roses are rendered in a light, almost ethereal tone that blends with the background.

Life Story

Born in United States Hinton, WV on September 22, 1983.

September 22, 1983

On September 22nd 1983 after waiting for nine months my little angel Robert came in the world he was a beautiful baby boy only there was something special about him, He was a gift from God Above. Robert was born with Cystic Fibrosis and diagnosed at birth. You see God Chose me to be the special mom to take care of little baby Robert he needed me because he knew i would never turn my back on him no matter what happens in life. Robert was my life he was the only man in my life that never hurt me we became best friends thru his life growing from a child to an adult, no matter what, we stuck together and fought the battle against cystic fibrosis only after 23years of fighting Robert began to get very tired and even though I kept fighting he was getting weaker and weaker until God finally stepped in and whispered to Him "COME TO ME MY CHILD AND I WILL LET YOU REST NO MORE FIGHTING , NO MORE PAIN" Robert listened to God and did what he said . On August 13th 2007 at 1:10am Robert went to be with Jesus. You see God had to hurt me to prove he only takes the best. Robert loved to race cars he built his very own race truck a 1976 Chevy Luv. he was very proud of what he done Robert has a older sister April and a younger sister brittney and me his mommy we miss him very much. I cry everyday cause my heart hurts not to have him with me even though I know he is in no more pain and suffering with this terrible disease. When Robert Passed he took a part of my heart and it will never be whole again untill the day we meet again in Heaven.
